

The Wisconsin No Call has been effective and necessary to us consumers to recover and retain privacy in our homes. Businesses calling our homes to sell us products is NOT desired nor acceptable unless I request the contact specifically - and this does not mean I request the contact by the act of buying a product.

In a nutshell, the Wisconsin No Call List has been a godsend! We have re-acquired some peace and quiet in our home! Don't turn things back into chaos by bowing to the demands and whining of businesses who want to take away our right to privacy in our homes because they want to use an "easy" way to contact a potential buyer of their products
